

Sébastien Legrix de la salle (Partner), Edouard Schoenke (Associate) et Romane Spannaccini (Associate) join Squadra Avocats.

This team, which enjoys a strong reputation in real estate law, will focus on fostering and enhancing the firm's burgeoning real estate activities, both in an advisory and litigative capacity, particularly to matters relating to leases, real estate development, construction, and the sale of buildings, business assets or leasehold rights.

The team's clients range from national and international, encompassing both owners and tenants, spanning all types of assets (retail, office, logistics, industry, hospitality, etc.)

In the words of François Lan, Managing Partner of Squadra Avocats, "Squadra Avocats' ambition is to gradually build up a comprehensive, high-quality business law offering, by fostering synergy between the firm's multiple areas of expertise. With the arrival of a team of three lawyers specializing in real estate law, the firm is now endowed with the specialized and complementary expertise that our clients have required."

Following these recent arrivals, Squadra Avocats now boasts some forty lawyers, including 12 partners, entirely committed to addressing its clients legal and strategic demands.
